RICSTM

This seminar programme is being run in partnership with RICS
Matrics in Aberdeen, Edinburgh and Glasgow.

PROGRAMME	DATES
Seminar 1: CVAs	October 2018
This seminar will explore Company Voluntary Arrangements (CVAs) from a property perspective and how they differ from administrations and liquidations. Our insolvency experts will explain when a CVA can be used by a tenant and the effect which this has on landlords.	Wednesday 17 October, Edinburgh Thursday 25 October, Glasgow Wednesday 31 October, Aberdeen 5.30pm – 7pm
Seminar 2: Asset Management Workshop	November 2018
This workshop will deal with the day to day issues which arise in the management of commercial properties including consents for works, assignments and sub-leases, and termination of leases and licences.	Thursday 15 November, Glasgow Thursday 22 November, Edinburgh Thursday 29 November, Aberdeen 5.30pm – 7pm
Seminar 3: Dilapidations	January 2019
Disputes relating to dilapidations are regularly heard in the Scottish Courts. Our property litigators will conduct a mock court hearing with landlord and tenant representatives presenting their arguments on who should be responsible for what and, ultimately, who should pay.	Thursday 17 January, Aberdeen Tuesday 22 January, Glasgow Tuesday 29 January, Edinburgh 5.30pm – 7pm
Seminar 4: Overcoming the challenges of developing in a rural setting	February 2019
Our rural property experts will examine how to unlock rural development sites, navigating the way through tenancies, securing access and services and other rural issues which may cause complications for the unsuspecting developer.	Tuesday 5 February, Glasgow Wednesday 13 February, Aberdeen Tuesday 26 February, Edinburgh 5.30pm – 7pm
Seminar 5: Alternative Markets	May 2019
Investment in alternative markets is now trending in the UK real estate industry. This seminar will give an overview of three of these alternative investment asset classes; build to rent, retirement living and student accommodation and discuss how they differ from traditional investment assets.	Thursday 16 May, Aberdeen Tuesday 28 May, Glasgow Wednesday 29 May, Edinburgh 5.30pm – 7pm

These free evening seminars will be held in Brodies' offices in Aberdeen, Edinburgh and Glasgow.

Invitations for each seminar will be issued 4 weeks in advance so you can register your attendance.
